Taylor Harrington's practice is focused primarily on civil litigation defense. He represents individuals and businesses in a broad range of matters, including general negligence, transportation and trucking litigation, premises liability, product liability, insurance defense, and contract disputes.

Mr. Harrington has extensive experience managing cases from inception through resolution. His practice includes drafting and arguing dispositive and procedural motions, conducting written discovery, preparing and defending depositions, and representing clients in mediations, hearings, and other court proceedings. He regularly advises clients on case strategy, risk assessment, and litigation exposure, and is known for developing practical, case-specific approaches aligned with client objectives.
