Ifunanya Ngadi focuses her practice on Intellectual Property, primarily Trademarks and Copyright, as well as Commercial Litigation matters. She is an experienced negotiator and a strong advocate for her clients, using all the tools at her disposal to achieve the best results for her clients. Ifunanya is also effective at client counseling, helping clients easily understand the intricacies of the complex legal field.

During Law School, Ifunanya gained extensive experience in Intellectual Property by working in Texas A&M's Trademark and Copyright Clinic and in Alternative Dispute Resolution by competing in the Texas A&M Black Law Student Alternative Dispute Resolution Team.

Ifunanya is a passionate attorney focused on bridging the gap between the legal profession and everyday people.
