Tavia Williams is an insurance defense attorney with civil litigation experience. She represents clients in civil matters and has experience managing cases from pre-suit through trial. Tavia earned her Juris Doctor from Texas A&M University School of Law, where she served as an Articles Editor for the Journal of Property Law and was a competitive mock trial advocate. She also brings prior judicial and complex litigation experience to her practice. A Jamaican-born, first-generation attorney, Tavia brings ambition, perseverance, and a strong work ethic to her insurance defense and litigation practice. Drawing on her past experiences, Tavia approaches each matter with diligence, careful preparation, and a willingness to advocate zealously for her clients' interests.
